

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY! 2nd Sunday of Easter

Each year, on the Sunday following Easter (the octave day of Easter), the Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast that highlights Christ's boundless love and forgiveness.

Rooted in the Church's reflection on the Resurrection, this celebration invites the faithful to trust more deeply in Jesus and to extend His mercy to others. Promoted through the revelations received by St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), a Polish nun, and spread by the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception, Divine Mercy Sunday serves as a powerful reminder of God's infinite love and compassion.

Christ's victory

The establishment of Divine Mercy Sunday as a universal feast for the Catholic Church was announced by Pope St. John Paul II in the Great Jubilee 2000 during the canonization of St. Faustina. The impetus for its establishment, however, traces back to the 1930s when St. Faustina reported private revelations from Jesus.

In her diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul, St. Faustina recorded Christ's request that the Sunday after Easter be declared the Feast of Mercy. The feast is closely connected to the Easter mystery. While Easter celebrates Christ's victory over sin and death, Divine Mercy Sunday emphasizes the gift made possible through that victory — God's limitless mercy available to all. Jesus told St. Faustina, "On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy" (Diary, 699).

Extraordinary graces

Divine Mercy Sunday offers a special opportunity for spiritual renewal. Jesus revealed to St. Faustina that those who go to Confession, receive Holy Communion, and place their trust in His mercy can receive the complete remission of sins and punishment, in other words, a complete renewal of baptismal grace in the soul. This extraordinary gift reflects God's deep desire to reconcile every person to Himself.
