St. Gregory the Great

Pope/Doctor of the Church — (540-604 A.D.)

Saint Gregory the Great was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome.

Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons and served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, but at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome.

Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. He was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant.

Saint Gregory the Great lived in a time of perpetual strife with invading Lombards and difficult relations with the East. When Rome itself was under attack, he interviewed the Lombard king.

His book, Pastoral Care, on the duties and qualities of a bishop, was read for centuries after his death. He described bishops mainly as physicians whose main duties were preaching and the enforcement of discipline. In his own down-to-earth preaching, Gregory was skilled at applying the daily Gospel to the needs of his listeners. Called "the Great," Gregory has been given a place with Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is "Gregory the Great".

Children's Liturgy Starting Soon!

Children's Liturgy of the Word on Sundays will resume soon. This program is coordinated with the Sunday Mass. The children with their leaders celebrate and reflect on the Sunday Gospel reading and the teachings of the Catholic faith. The children are led through prayers, songs and readings that are adapted to their level of understanding. Children ages 3-8 years can attend. We are looking for individuals who would like to serve in this ministry. If you are interested in helping, please contact Cindy Nelson by texting/calling 306-297-7911.
